Great Place

“Let me start the review by stating that I spend around a hundred nights a year in hotels and this hotel is unlike any place I've ever stayed. I tend to shy away from smaller boutique hotels because most of them will excel in one area and then fail miserably in another. The Well House Manor is very close to my company's location and it was recommended to me, so I was a bit frightened at first. Much like some of the other reviews have said, the property is very well taken care of and is very nice from the exterior. Upon entering, you never feel like you're in a hotel, but rather someone's house. I've stayed here more times than I count and I've think I've literally stayed in all the rooms - all 5. Each room is nicely decorated and comfortable. The beds are among the largest you'll ever find in a hotel. Every bathroom is nicely finished with some nice bathtubs and showers. The rooms themselves are enough to come back, but they're just a small reason to come. The internet is the fastest (and free) in any hotel I've stayed in the US or anywhere. The owner is an IT techy guy, so he has great internet service. The best part however are the people...I usually hate overly friendly or gushy staff, but I can genuinely say that they make you at home. Heather is as helpful and nice as you can be...and I can't think of another person I've ever met that's as smiley and bubbling as Sarah. It's truly a welcoming environment. There are times you forget you're in a hotel because you have the run of the place. The breakfast is quite nice...not overly extravagant, but nicely done. Anyone who doesn't like this place really hasn't travelled and hasn't seen what hotels can really be like...even the five star ones. When I come here, I'm flying in from the US. Most hotels have a 3pm check in time, but I've gotten to the Well House as early as 11am and I can't begin to tell you how nice it is not to have to wait to get into a shower after a 20 hour journey.”

Recommend to anyone.

“Had a really nice stay here with my girlfriend after visiting Bath for the first time last weekend. The whole place was immaculate and modern. Room was spacious and comfy. The hotel looks great from the outside and we were greeted as soon as we walked in. We were also given a list of places that were good for a bite to eat and a drink in the evening. Breakfast was then all spread out in the morning with as much as you wanted.”

Home from home

“My wife and I are relocating to the area and had quite a busy couple of days house hunting. We have a small dog and needed a hotel which would accommodate our pooch without us having to sacrifice style and luxury.

From my first telephone call I was made to feel valued and the communication with Sarah during my questions, enquiry and booking was very good. On arrival we drove around the wonderful water fountain and were met by the grandeur of the house which occupies a beautiful position. Once inside, all three of us feeling very exhausted and in need of TLC were met by Phil and his wife Heather who made us all feel very welcome and gave Lucy our dog the freedom of the house and grounds, within reason.

After check-in we were shown to our room on the first floor - inside the decor was tastefully finished and the furnishings executive but very homely with a very roomy feel and with a bathroom shower to die for. The entire hotel has wifi and business facilities with a safe, ironing board and hairdryer in each room, and the complimentary toiletries were ample and very good quality.

The hotel is only 8 minutes walk into Melksham and this nice market town is centrally situated for exploring the rest of Wiltshire. On our second night Phil kindly spared some time in the excellent Melksham historic museum which occupies a room on the ground floor by reception. His knowledge of local history was not only fascinating but the hard work and dedication he and the other custodians have put in reinforced our passion to relocate to the area. The photographs and videos which span 100 years or more give a real insight into the town's history and well worth a visit, and is open to the public.

Breakfast is continental of very good quality including meats, cheeses, pastries and cereals, tea and coffee, grapefruit and freshly squeezed orange juice and the daily papers. What we loved most was the friendly nature and the thoroughly homely feel we were given from everyone. The local recommendations given for food were second to none and I will close by saying that we will be looking for the excuse to stay again and making recommendations to friends and family. Thank you to all for a great stay and we hope to see you in and around.

You Must Visit!

“If you are looking at this hotel and wondering whether or not you should book it, then I highly recommend that you do! It is a small hotel but with very big features. The rooms are decorated to a very high standard and all have en suites. The rooms have a safe which is easy to operate for your personal items and all rooms have internet access it would appear. The hotel is very clean and the staff and owner cannot do enough to make your stay a pleasant one. The buffet breakfast is plentiful and suits everyone's tastes. Together with the tea/coffee making facilities provided in the rooms there is also a coffee machine in the hall near to the breakfast room which provides a great quality coffee. The grounds are very pretty and well manicured lawns are a pleasure to stroll on. There is a lovely rear patio which gets the sun all evening. Great for enjoying food and drinks etc. We stayed for 3 nights and used the location as a base from which to tour the numerous tourists attractions in the area. It was perfect and we will definitely use this hotel again if we are ever in this region. Our little dog was made to feel right at home too with a bed and bowl provided. If this hotel does not suit your needs, then I cannot think of one that possibly could.”

Family Visit

“We stayed at this Hotel for 2 nights from 5th March 2014. Hotel is excellent and we would recommend it. The rooms are spotless as is the rest of the Hotel. One of the best showers we have had in ages. The location is very good only 10 minutes walk from town center. Car park is on site and loads of room. Staff are really nice and nothing was to much trouble. Breakfast is continental and there is loads of choice. You can make tea and coffee anytime in the cosy reception room and they even have a microwave you can use. Overall a great stay at a really great Hotel. We stayed in room No3.”
